THE FEDERAL BUDGET: IMPLICATIONS FOR CALIFORNIA

The House of Representatives is scheduled to vote during the first week of February on cuts to programs that are much needed in our communities such as Medicaid and TANF.

What cuts are being debated, and what will they mean for low-income families, seniors and disabled people in California?

To address these issues, we will have two guest speakers:

Rachel Gragg, of Center for Community Change, expert on welfare policy working in Washington, DC

Lucy Quacinella, of Multi-Forum Advocacy Solutions, our local health policy expert
